The Alemanni Tribe was transplanted from Alsace to the Canton of Zurich in the 5th Century C.E..
The first known Alemanni family moved & built the Hof (farm) of Oberholz in the 7th Century.
By the 11th Century, the Oberholzer family began building high quality Church Furniture, a 1000 year old company.
"Oberholtz as a place name was used in the 13th Century." -John L. Overholt
The farm of Oberholzer was documented Mar 5, 1438 (Kilger), with Farmer Oberholzer being persecuted in 15th Cent.
Village history goes back to 1520 (Billeter), 1601 in the Hinwil District of Zurich (Gruenigen).
There are several places in the district of Wald which the Oberholtzer families lived. But the original homestead was in the town of Oberholz; it is also called the Upper House typically by the Alemanni families.
The Upper House families stayed Catholic (at least till the 20th Century). The valley families became Protestant. The younger generation moved to the "unter" (or Lower) House. This was at the Aa (meaning Spring) in the valley. As time progressed, a village grew up on the lower side of the Aa, and it became Aathal. The town of Wald is north, down the thal or valley from Aathal.
The family of Oberholz worshiped in the Catholic Church of Eschenbach, on the west side of the ridge. Some church records still exist. This changed when there were enough people to build the Chapel in Oberholz.
"Some Oberholtzers came as tenant farmers to Sinsheim in 1654, and settled in 1661. The Elector lived in a castle with a central tower 100 ft. high and walls 16 feet thick. He was a Protestant surrounded by Catholics... Six families came from Zurich, Only one family, widower Jacob with two children came to America." - John L. Overholt 1731 - Martin & Jacob Oberholtzer appear as members of the Mennonite Congregation on the Herr Hoff(farm), in the Upper Palatinate, whence they came from Switzerland in earlier days. - See Miller, p. 209, John L. Overholt Papers

Martin was one of the signers of the June 24, 1710 letter of thanks to the Dutch from London. A letter written by William Penn to the English Minister to the Netherlands gave them passage through Holland. This letter was written in London, England June 21, 1710 and signed by Martin Oberholtzer, Martin Kendig, Christian Herr, Jacob Muller, Jacob Meile, and Hans Herr. They were then in England ready to sail in a few days to America. They took passage on the "Mary Hope" of which John Annis was master. It sailed from London on Friday June 29, 1710 with ninety-four passengers on board, and arrived at Philadelphia in September 1710.

Martin purchased 200 acres by the Conestoga Creek, southeast of Millersville, from Alexander Benes. On 5/14/1733 underage. See article on Peter Bizaillon, as he was likely a fur trapper for Peter.
