There were "45 Palatines, who with their families, making in all about 130 persons", arrived with ship Master William Clymer from Rotterdam. Yelles Cassel settled in Hatfield, Henry Clemmer settled in Franconia, Hans Clemmer's widow Ann married Frederick Alderfer, father of Abraham Alderfer, all names woven into the HJ family.

Hans Jacob Overholtz with his wife Catharina, son Henry and daughter Elizabeth, arrived in Philadelphia 9/5/1730 on the ALEXANDER & ANN. Jacob settled in Hatfield Twp, Philadelphia Co (now Montgy Co) where he bought 200 acres probably in February 1735/6. Hans Jacob, his son Henry and son-in-law Jacob Savacool were naturalized together April 11-13, 1743 Philadelphia Supreme Court.

Originally Philadelphia Co

Only this person meets the following criteria to be HJ Hans Jacob Oberholzer who came to America 1730:

He is the proper age to have an eldest child in 1718. He was middle aged when he came to America in 1730.

He is designated as Swiss-German on the immigration lists. His wife Catharine is listed in America, and he is one of the few who have no wife in Wald. Hans Jacob was the only Oberholzer on the ship. - DLO

Squatted Occupier Lot 1/2 1 Con 1, Puslinch prior 1841

Con. 3 Lot 7 rear in Puslinch owned by Michael, extending from the river to the town line.

"Prior to changing its name from New Hope to Hespeler, it was called Bergey Town, reflecting the amount of property owned by Michael. It is reputed that Michael's home on Queen St in Hespeler, was the first to be built there.

His cousin Elias Bergey built a home on Michael's land also." - Puslinch Historical Society

Michael bought big parcel of land in New Hope c1842 to 1845; 1871 res Hespeler, Waterloo Co CAN

1830 Michael built a sawmill & small foundry on land bought from Abram Clemens; built a 2nd mill on the other side of Speed River in 1830's, resold to Clemens in 1840. Cornelius Pannebacker & Joseph Oberholtzer built a 3rd sawmill c1840, & Oberholtzer built a 4th between the 3rd & 1st two between 1845 & 1853, Jacob Hespeler bought the Bergy millsites with 145 acres from Abraham Clemens & his heirs. - Waterloo Twp through two centuries.
