Early History

There are several places in the district of Wald which the Oberholtzer families lived.
The original homestead was in the town of Oberholz. Also called the Upper House typically by the Alemanni families.
The Upper House families stayed Catholic (at least till the 20th Century). The valley families became Protestant.
The younger generation moved to the "unter" (or Lower) House. This was at the Aa (meaning Spring) in the valley.
A village grew up on the lower side of the Aa, and it became Aathal.
The town of Wald is north, down the thal or valley from Aathal.
The family or Oberholz worshipped in the Catholic Church of Eschenbach, on the west side of the ridge. Some church records still exist. This changed when there were enough people to build the Chapel in Oberholz.
Some moved to Goldingen, remaining Catholic; with its first chapel in 1667.
And some moved to St Gallenkappel, both toward Lake Zurich.
Some of the Catholic Oberholzer family moved to Uznach, at the pass along the southern end of Lake Zurich.

JL3 Johannes Oberholtzer c1739 - 1801 m Elizabeth Brand 1742 - aft 1786

John sold his share of land to Jacob Oberholtzer in Dale (later Martindale), and went to Trostel Hill.

John immigrated that came 1732 with Jacob & Hans Groff
 Copied from family record & written by Bertha Oberholzer Weiler. Date unknown:
 "Jacob & John & Hans Groff came from Switzerland in fall of 1732 and landed in Philadelphia. They went up the Schuylkill as far as Dale and took land there and built a flour mill – still running by Amos Oberholzer. Joseph Oberholzer from Dale gave this information. John sold out to Jacob and went to Trostel Hill.
 John Oberholzer, my great, great grandfather had four sons: John, Jacob, Joseph, Abraham. Abraham was my great grandfather. When quite young he went to Gabels Mill, now Kurtzs. He married a rich Wenger woman and went back between Frys Mill and Terre Hill. Jacob stayed at Dale.
 They scattered to Montgomery, Lebanon, and Lititz. John was a brother of my Great grandfather.
 Jacob & Joseph were bachelors. They had a sister Sarah.
 Bertha Oberholzer was born at Oberholzer's Mill, Spring Grove PA, now Union Grove, on November 11, 1892. Her father was Peter"

Jacob was a farmer and driller, Mennonite Church; his mother died when he was 6, & father married the following year and when he was 9 they moved to Stark Co OH. Jacob attended only a few years of school and only a few weeks a year. Despite his little schooling, he still managed to read and write very well. He worked on the farm for his father until of age, then working for neighbors for several years and later took up drilling for coal and water, which he did for 17 years. Jacob died after a 14 year battle with pneumonia.
